Group Home Worker LutherCare Communities

The Organization:

Founded in 1955 as the Lutheran Sunset Home of Saskatoon, LutherCare Communities provides excellence in care, housing, and community services within a nurturing Christian environment.

In Saskatoon, we own and operate 6 group homes that support physically and cognitively challenged adults.

The Position:

Applicants will be responsible for the personal care and safety of clients and for the implementation of individual lifestyle plans. The wage for this position starts at $12.94.

Duties and Responsibilities of Group Home Workers include three main areas:

- Resident Care – Includes assistance of personal hygiene (bathing, toileting, dressing, eating etc.)
- Resident Programming – Includes the facilitation of resident daily living activities and participation in the community.
- Home Maintenance – Includes housekeeping, laundry and the preparation of meals and snacks

LutherCare offers a competitive compensation package. Benefits Include:

- Health care benefits
- Dental benefits
- Vision benefits
- Long term disability benefits
- Group life benefits
- Accidental death and dismemberment insurance
- Employee family assistance program
- Pension plan contributions shared with LutherCare
- Paid sick leave
- Enhanced vacation entitlement

The Applicants:

Applicants would typically qualify for this position through the completion of a grade 12 education with previous experience working with developmentally challenged adults in a residential setting. A Disability Support Worker (Rehabilitation Worker) course, Special Care Aide course or equivalent education is preferred. Sign language is desirable. Applicants must be available to work shifts that include days, evenings, nights, and weekends. Applicants must possess good interpersonal skills and be able to interpret, read, write and speak English fluently.

Because staff turnover can be hard on the people needing support, we ask that applicants visit our website to review the Day in the Life Job Preview of this position before applying.
